CONSTITUTION, BYLAWS, AND CONTINUING RESOLUTIONS

of the

OREGON SYNOD

of the

EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH IN AMERICA

Chapter 1. Name and Incorporation

- +S1.01. The name of this synod, as determined by the Churchwide Assembly, shall be Oregon Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.
- +S1.02. For the purposes of this constitution and the accompanying bylaws, the Oregon Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America is hereafter designated as "this synod" or "the synod".
- +S1.11. This synod shall be incorporated. Amendments to the articles of incorporation of this synod shall be submitted to the Church Council for ratification before filing.
- +S1.21. The seal of this synod is modeled on the seal of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. The seal of the church is a cross with three united flames emanating from the base of the cross and three entwined circles beside the cross. The year of the constituting convention of this church is included at the base of the cross. The name of the church forms the circular outer edge of the seal with the words "Oregon Synod" added to the top.

Chapter 2. Status

- +S2.01. This synod possesses the powers conferred upon it, and accepts the duties and responsibilities assigned to it, in the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, which are recognized as having governing force in the life of this synod.
- +S2.02. The name Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA or "this church") as used herein refers in general references to this whole church, including its three expressions – congregations, synods, and the churchwide organization. The name Evangelical Lutheran Church is also the name of the corporation of the churchwide organization to which specific references may be made herein.
- +S2.03. No provision of this constitution shall be inconsistent with the constitution and bylaws of this church.

Chapter 3. Territory

- +S3.01. The territory of this synod, as determined by the Churchwide Assembly, shall be the State of Oregon and the City of Tulelake, in the State of California.
- +S3.02. "Determined by the Churchwide Assembly," as stipulated in +S3.01, is understood to include the reported changes in synod relationship made by any congregation in a border area agreed under ELCA bylaws 10.01.11. and 10.02.02.

Chapter 4. Confession of Faith

- +S4.01. This synod confesses the Triune God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
- +S4.02. This synod confesses Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior and the Gospel as the power of God for the salvation of all who believe.
 - a. Jesus Christ is the Word of God incarnate, through whom everything was made and through whose life, death, and resurrection God fashions a new creation.
 - b. The proclamation of God's message to us as both Law and Gospel is the Word of God, revealing judgment and mercy through word and deed, beginning with the Word in creation, continuing in the history of Israel, and centering in all its fullness in the person and work of Jesus Christ.
 - c. The canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the written Word of God. Inspired by God's Spirit speaking through their authors, they record and announce God's revelation centering in Jesus Christ. Through them God's Spirit speaks to us to create and sustain Christian faith and fellowship for service in the world.
- +S4.03. This synod accepts the canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments as the inspired Word of God and the authoritative source and norm of its proclamation, faith, and life.
- +S4.04. This synod accepts the Apostles', Nicene, and Athanasian Creeds as true declarations of the faith of this synod.
- +S4.05. This synod accepts the Unaltered Augsburg Confession as a true witness to the Gospel, acknowledging as one with it in faith and doctrine all churches that likewise accept the teachings of the Unaltered Augsburg Confession.
- +S4.06. This synod accepts the other confessional writings in the Book of Concord, namely, the Apology of the Augsburg Confession, the Smalcald Articles and the Treatise, the Small Catechism, the Large Catechism, and the Formula of Concord, as further valid interpretations of the faith of the Church.
- +S4.07. This synod confesses the Gospel, recorded in the Holy Scriptures and confessed in the ecumenical creeds and Lutheran confessional writings, as the power of God to create and sustain the Church for God's mission in the world.

Chapter 5. Nature of the Church

- +S5.01. All power in the Church belongs to our Lord Jesus Christ, its head. All actions of this synod are to be carried out under his rule and authority.
- +S5.02. The Church exists both as an inclusive fellowship and as local congregations gathered for worship and Christian service. Congregations find their fulfillment in the universal community of the Church, and the universal Church exists in and through congregations. This church, therefore, derives its character and powers both from the sanction and representation of its congregations and from its inherent nature as an expression of the broader fellowship of the faithful. In length, it acknowledges itself to be in the historic continuity of the communion of saints; in breadth, it expresses the fellowship of believers and congregations in our day.

Chapter 6. Statement of Purpose

- 7) termination of the relationship between this church and the congregation;
- 8) dissolution of the congregation or the termination of a parish arrangement; or
- 9) suspension of the congregation through discipline proceedings for more than six months.

b. When allegations of physical disability or mental incapacity of the pastor under paragraph a.4) above, or ineffective conduct of the pastoral office under paragraph a.3) above, have come to the attention of the bishop of this synod,

- 1) the bishop in his or her sole discretion may investigate such conditions personally together with a committee of two ordained ministers and one lay person, or
- 2) when such allegations have been brought to the synod's attention by an official recital of allegations by the congregation council or by a petition signed by at least one-third of the voting members of the congregation, the bishop personally shall investigate such conditions together with a committee of two ordained ministers and one layperson.

- c. In case of alleged physical disability or mental incapacity under paragraph a.4) above, the bishop's committee shall obtain and document competent medical opinion concerning the pastor's condition. When a disability or incapacity is evident to the committee, the bishop of this synod may declare the pastorate vacant and the pastor shall be listed on the clergy roster as disabled. Upon removal of the disability and restoration of the pastor to health, the bishop shall take steps to enable the pastor to resume the ministry, either in the congregation last served or in another appropriate call.
 - d. In the case of alleged local difficulties that imperil the effective functioning of the congregation under paragraph a.3) above, the bishop's committee shall endeavor to hear from all concerned persons, after which the bishop together with the committee shall present their recommendations first to the pastor and then to the congregation. The recommendations of the bishop's committee must address whether the pastor's call should come to an end and, if so, may suggest appropriate severance arrangements. The committee may also propose other actions that should be undertaken by the congregation and by the pastor, if appropriate. If the pastor and congregation agree to carry out such recommendations, no further action need be taken by the synod.
 - e. If either party fails to assent to the recommendations of the bishop's committee concerning the pastor's call, the congregation may dismiss the pastor only at a legally called meeting after consultation with the bishop, either (a) by a two-thirds majority vote of the voting members present and voting where the bishop and the committee did not recommend termination of the call, or (b) by a simple majority vote of the voting members present and voting where the bishop and the committee recommended termination of the call.
 - f. If, in the course of proceedings described in paragraph c. or paragraph d. above, the bishop's committee concludes that there may be grounds for disciplinary action, the committee shall make recommendations concerning disciplinary action in accordance with the provisions of this church's constitution, bylaws, and continuing resolutions.
- + S14.14. Ordained ministers shall respect the integrity of the ministry of congregations which they do not serve and shall not exercise ministerial functions therein unless invited to do so by the pastor, or if there is no duly called pastor, then by the interim pastor in consultation with the Congregation Council.

The parochial records of all baptisms, confirmations, marriages, burials, communicants, members received, members transferred or dismissed, members who have become inactive, or members excluded from the congregation shall be kept accurately and permanently. They shall remain the property of each congregation. At the time of the closure of a congregation, such records shall be sent to the regional archives. The secretary of the congregation shall attest to the bishop of this synod that such records have been placed in his/her hands in good order by a departing pastor before:
- a. installation in another field of labor, or
 - b. the issuance of a certificate of dismissal or transfer.

The interim pastor may delegate the same in part to an interim supply pastor with the consent of the bishop of this synod. The interim pastor and any ordained ministers who may assist shall refrain from exerting influence in the selection of a pastor. Upon completion of service, the interim pastor shall certify to the bishop of this synod that the parochial records, for the period for which the interim pastor was responsible, are in order.

- + S14.18. With the approval of the synodical bishop expressed in writing which sets forth a clear statement of the purpose to be served by such a departure from the normal rule of permanency of the call as expressed in S14.13.1, a congregation may call a pastor for a specific term of years. Details of such calls shall be in writing setting forth the purpose and conditions involved. Prior to the completion of a term, the bishop of this synod or a representative of the bishop shall meet with the pastor and representatives of the congregation for a review of the call. Such call may also be terminated before its expiration in accordance with the provisions of S14.13.

 - 1) Such a congregation of this synod shall consult the synodical bishop before taking any steps leading to extending such a call.

- d. Associates in ministry, deaconesses, and diaconal ministers on the roster of this synod who are serving under call shall attend meetings of the Synod Assembly.

Chapter 15. Financial Matters

- +S15.01. The fiscal year of this synod shall be February 1 to January 31.
- +S15.11. Since the congregations, synods, and churchwide organization are interdependent units that share responsibly in God's mission, all share in the responsibility to develop, implement, and strengthen the financial support program of the whole church. The gifts and offerings of the members of ELCA are given to support all parts of this church and thus partnership in this church should be evidenced in determining each part's share of the gifts and offerings. Therefore:
 - a. The mission of this church beyond the congregation is to be supported by such a proportionate share of each congregation's annual budget as each congregation determines. This synod shall develop guidelines for determining "proportionate share," and shall consult with congregational leaders to assist each congregation in making its determination.
 - b. This synod shall receive the proportionate share of the mission support from its congregations, and shall transmit that percentage of each congregation's mission support as determined by the Churchwide Assembly to the treasurer of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.
- +S15.12. The annual budget of this synod shall reflect the entire range of its own activities and its commitment to partnership funding with other synods and the churchwide organization. Unless an exception is granted upon the request of this synod by the Church Council, each budget shall include the percentage of congregational mission support assigned to it by the Churchwide Assembly.
- S15.13. On the basis of estimated income, the Synod Council shall authorize expenditures within the budget for the fiscal year. Expenditure authorizations shall be subject to revision, in light of changing conditions, by the Synod Council.
- S15.14. Except when such procedure would jeopardize current operations, a reserve amounting to no more than 16% of the sum of the amounts scheduled in the next year's budget for regular distribution to synodical causes shall be carried forward annually for disbursement in the following year in the interest of making possible a more even flow of income to such causes. The exact number of dollars to be held in reserve shall be determined by the Synod Council.

+S15.31. This synod shall arrange to have an annual audit of its financial records conducted by a certified public accountant firm recommended by the synod Audit Committee and approved by the Synod Council. The audited annual financial report shall be submitted by this synod to the churchwide Office of the Treasurer and to the congregations of this synod. The financial statements shall be in the format approved from time to time by the churchwide Office of the Treasurer.

+S15.32. This synod shall maintain adequate, continuous insurance coverage in accordance with standards recommended by the churchwide organization. Insurance programs offered or endorsed by the churchwide organization shall be deemed to fulfill this obligation.

S15.40. Oregon Synod Endowment Fund

S15.41. The Oregon Synod Endowment Fund shall be maintained as a restricted fund of the Oregon Synod. The Endowment Fund shall:

S15.41.02. The Fund may accept or reject any gift to the Endowment Fund for any reason. Ownership of a gift will not pass to the Fund until it is accepted. Charitable gift annuities or similar arrangements may be made with donors.

S15.41.03. The Fund will be managed to preserve assets and to earn a prudent income for distribution in accordance with the Fund purposes and/or donor directions.

S15.41.04. Distribution of Fund earnings and assets.

- a. Directed gifts to the Endowment Fund will be distributed solely on the basis of the donor's intent for the gift.
- b. A tithe of ten percent (10%) of each distribution of income from non-directed funds will be given to the ELCA as an unrestricted gift in addition to other commitments of this synod to the ELCA. Remaining income from non-directed gifts and gifts for immediate distribution will be distributed at the direction of the Endowment Fund Committee, after consultation with the Synod Council.

- c. Funds may be distributed in the form of grants, gifts and/or loans and may be used for program, staff or capital purposes that fulfill the Endowment Fund's mission.*

S15.42. An Endowment Fund Committee shall direct the activities of the Fund and shall have fiduciary responsibility for the Fund. The Committee will consist of 9 members elected by the Synod Assembly to three-year, staggered terms. Members may be once reelected. The bishop and the treasurer of this synod will be members ex-officio.

S15.42.01. The Board of Trustees shall declare a position vacant after a member has missed three consecutive meetings. In consultation with the Synod Council, the bishop will appoint a person to fill the vacancy until the next Assembly.

S15.43. The Endowment Fund Committee shall focus on ministry through major gifts and estate planning, working to enhance the practice of Christian stewardship, to educate persons in the ministry needs of the Church, and to provide the opportunity to participate in the work and vision of the Church both now and for years to come. Further, the Endowment Fund Committee shall:

- b. report the audited financial condition of the Fund at each regularly scheduled meeting of the Synod Assembly, including its receipts, investments, distributions, earnings and expenses,
- c. submit a budget annually to the treasurer, for inclusion without change and clearly segregated from other synod activities, in this synod's annual budget pursuant to S15.12. Expenditure authorizations are subject to revision in light of changing conditions by the Endowment Fund Committee,
- d. designate a Custodian and other persons, as necessary, to execute the instructions of the Committee, and
- e. propose such bylaws for adoption by the Assembly and enact such operating guidelines, investment directions and other procedures as may be required for the preservation and orderly management of the Fund.

S15.43.01. The Board of Trustees will meet at least annually and as needed to fulfill its mission. Meetings will be called with no less than 10 days written notice. A quorum of at least 50% of the current Board of Trustees membership must be present to conduct Board of Trustees business.

S15.43.02. The Board of Trustees will elect such officers for the Fund as may be necessary to achieve its purposes.

- b. The Board of Trustees will annually elect a member of the Board of Trustees as Recording Secretary to create and maintain minutes of meetings and other records and reports for the Board of Trustees.

S15.43.03. The Fund Custodian may be the treasurer of this synod, another person or a financial institution. At least annually, the Committee will give instructions to the Fund Custodian regarding all matters on which the Custodian is authorized to act. Instructions regarding investment of Fund assets may consider diversification of investments, consistency of investment types or issuers with Fund purposes, acceptable risk of investments, and similar matters.

S.15.43.04. The Endowment Fund Board of Trustees members, the Custodian, and any employees of the Fund shall be included among those covered by the indemnification provisions of S16.01. and S16.02., provided that any additional expense of insurance shall be borne by the Endowment Fund.

S15.43.05. The Board of Trustees will develop a program for the acknowledgement and recognition of gifts to the Endowment Fund.

S15.44. Dissolution and succession.

- a. The Endowment Fund may only be dissolved by the action at two consecutive regular Synod Assemblies. Upon dissolution, Fund assets will be transferred to the ELCA Foundation, or its successor, with the instructions of donors of directed gifts.
- b. If the Oregon Synod is succeeded by a successor church body, the assets of the Endowment Fund will be transferred to the successor church body intact and managed in a manner consistent with this constitution and bylaws. If the successor church body does not accept the Fund under these conditions, Fund assets will be transferred to the ELCA Foundation, or its successor, with the instructions of donors of directed gifts.

Chapter 16. Indemnification

+S16.01. Subject to the limitations and duties imposed by law, each person who is or was made or threatened to be made a party to any proceeding by reason of the present capacity of that person as a Synod Council member, officer, employee, or committee member of this synod shall be indemnified against all costs and expenses incurred by that person in connection with the proceeding. Indemnification of any person by reason of that person's capacity as a director, officer, employee, or committee member of any other organization, regardless of its form or relationship to this synod, is subject to the provisions of section +S16.02.

- a. The term “proceeding” means a threatened, pending, or completed lawsuit, whether civil or criminal, an administrative or investigative matter, arbitration, mediation, alternative dispute resolution, or any other similar legal or governmental action. Except as otherwise required by law, the term “proceeding” does not include (a) any action by this synod against the individual seeking indemnification, or (b) subject to +16.04., a disciplinary hearing or related process described in Chapter 20 of this constitution.

- b. The term “indemnification” includes reimbursement and advances of costs and expenses for judgments, penalties, fines, settlements, excise taxes, reasonable attorneys’ fees, disbursements, and similar required expenditures.

- +S16.02. Whenever a person who, while a Synod Council member, officer, committee member, or employee of this synod, is or was serving at the request of this synod (or whose duties in that position involve or involved service in the capacity of) a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another organization, is or was made or threatened to be made a party to a proceeding by reason of such capacity, then such person shall be entitled to indemnification only if (a) the Synod Council has established a process for determining whether a person serving in the capacity described in this section shall be entitled to indemnification in any specific case, and (b) that process has been applied in making a specific determination that such person is entitled to indemnification.
- +S16.03. This synod may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of itself or any person entitled to indemnification pursuant to this chapter against any liability asserted against and incurred by this synod or by such other person in or arising from a capacity described in section +S16.01. or section +S16.02.
- +S16.04. When written charges against and ordained minister or a layperson on an official roster of this church are made in disciplinary proceedings under Chapter 20 of the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America by the synodical bishop or when written charges against a congregation are made in disciplinary proceedings by the Synod Council or the synodical bishop, and the discipline hearing committee determines that no discipline shall be imposed, then if such determination is not reversed or set aside on appeal, indemnification shall be made by the synod to the accused for reasonable attorney's fees and other reasonable expenses related to the defense of the charges. The determination of the reasonableness of such fees and expenses shall be decided by the Synod Council.

Chapter 17. Adjudication

- +S17.01. The synodical bishop and the Executive Committee of the Synod Council shall be available to give counsel when disputes arise within this synod.
- +S17.02. The synodical bishop and the Executive Committee of the Synod Council shall receive expressions of concern from ordained ministers, associates in ministry or other persons on the official lay roster of this church, congregations, and organizations within this synod; provide a forum in which the parties concerned can seek to work out matters causing distress or conflict and make appropriate recommendations for their resolution. When the matter at issue cannot be resolved in this manner, the prescribed procedures for investigation, decision, appeal, and adjudication shall be followed. Allegations or charges which could lead to the discipline of an ordained minister or a person on the official lay roster of this church shall not be addressed by the Executive Committee but shall be resolved through the disciplinary process set forth in the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the ELCA.
- +S17.03. When there is disagreement among units of this synod on a substantive issue that cannot be resolved by the parties, the aggrieved party or parties may appeal to the synodical bishop and the Executive Committee of the Synod Council for a consultation. If this consultation fails to resolve the issue, a petition may be addressed by the parties to the Synod Council requesting it to arbitrate the issue. The decision of the Synod Council shall be final.

+S17.04. When a component or beneficiary of a synod has a disagreement on a substantive issue that it cannot resolve, it may address an appeal to the synodical bishop and the Executive Committee of the Synod Council. In this case the decision of the Executive Committee shall prevail, except that upon the motion of a member of the Synod Council, the decision shall be referred to the Synod Council for final action.

+S17.10. Adjudication in the Congregation

+S17.11. When there is disagreement among factions within a congregation on a substantive issue that cannot be resolved by the parties, members of a congregation shall have access to the synodical bishop for consultation after informing the chair of the Congregation Council of their intent. If the consultation fails to resolve the issue(s), the Consultation Committee of this synod shall consider the matter. If the Consultation Committee of this synod shall fail to resolve the issue(s), the matter shall be referred to the Synod Council, whose decision shall be final.

S17.20. Consultation and Discipline

S17.21. In compliance with Chapter 20 of the ELCA Constitution, there shall be a process for discipline governing ordained ministers, associates in ministry, congregations and members of congregations in this synod. This process shall assure due process and due protection for the accused, other parties, and the synod.

S17.21.01. In matter of consultation, discipline, appeals and adjudication this synod shall follow the procedures set forth in the ELCA constitution, Chapter 20, recognizing the intent that all matters of discipline should be resolved internally to the greatest extent possible. It is the policy of this synod not to resort to the civil courts of this land until all internal procedures and appeals have been exhausted, except in emergency situations involving a significant imminent risk of physical injury or severe loss or damage to property.

S17.21.02. This synod shall be guided by the definitions and procedures set forth in the ELCA constitution, Chapter 20, regarding reasons for discipline, the nature of offenses, proper steps in recall and dismissal, appeals and adjudication.

S17.21.03. There shall be a Consultation Committee and Committee on Discipline as established in Chapter 11 of this constitution. The committees shall function as follows: When there are indications that a cause for discipline exists, the bishop of the synod shall make efforts to resolve the situation; if these efforts fail, the Synod Council shall activate the procedures for consultation and investigation. If warranted, the matter shall then be referred to the Committee on Discipline.

S17.21.04. In the case of charges that do not anticipate disciplinary action, the bishop shall convey the recommendations of the special consultation committee to the parties involved. If either party does not accept the recommendations, that party may appeal the matter to the Synod Council whose decision shall be final. In the case of matters brought before the Committee on Discipline, the decision of the committee shall be final unless, within 30 days, an appeal is made to the Committee on Appeals of the ELCA. The decision of the Committee on Appeals shall be final.

Chapter 18. Amendments, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions

- +S18.01. This synod may adopt bylaws not in conflict with this constitution nor with the constitution and bylaws of this church. The synod may amend its bylaws at any meeting of the Synod Assembly by a two-thirds vote of voting members of the assembly present and voting. Newly adopted bylaws and amendments to existing bylaws shall be reported to the secretary of this church.
- +S18.10. Amendments to Constitution
- +S18.11. Certain sections of this constitution incorporate and record therein required provisions of the constitution and bylaws of this church. If such provisions are amended by the Churchwide Assembly, corresponding amendments shall be introduced at once into this constitution by the secretary of this synod upon receipt of formal certification thereof from the Secretary of Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.
- +S18.12. Whenever the Secretary of Evangelical Lutheran Church in America officially informs this synod that the Churchwide Assembly has amended the Constitution for Synods, this constitution may be amended to reflect any such amendment by a simple majority vote at any subsequent meeting of the Synod Assembly without presentation at a prior Synod Assembly. An amendment that is identical to a provision of the Constitution for Synods shall be deemed to have been ratified upon its adoption by the synod. The Church Council, through the secretary of this church, shall be given prompt notification of its adoption.
- +S18.13. Other amendments to this constitution may be adopted by this synod through either of the following procedures:
- a. An amendment may be adopted by a two-thirds vote at a regular meeting of the Synod Assembly after having been presented in writing at the previous regular meeting of the Synod Assembly over the signatures of at least ten (10) percent of the members and been approved by a two-thirds vote of the voting members present and voting at such a regular meeting of the Synod Assembly.
 - b. The Synod Council may propose an amendment, with notice to be sent to the congregations of this synod at least six months prior to the next regular meeting of the Synod Assembly. Such amendments shall require for adoption a two-thirds vote of the voting members present and voting at the next regular meeting of the Synod Assembly.
- All such amendments shall become effective upon ratification by the Churchwide Assembly or by the Church Council.
- +S18.20. Amendments to Bylaws
- +S18.21. This synod may adopt bylaws not in conflict with this constitution or with the constitution and bylaws of the churchwide organization. The synod may amend its bylaws at any meeting of the Synod Assembly by a two-thirds vote of voting members of the assembly present and voting. Newly adopted bylaws and amendments to existing bylaws shall be reported to the secretary of this church.

+S18.30. Amendments to Continuing Resolutions

+S18.31. This synod may adopt continuing resolutions not in conflict with this constitution or its bylaws or the constitution, bylaws, and continuing resolutions of the churchwide organization. Such continuing resolutions may be adopted or amended by a majority vote of the Synod Assembly or by a two-thirds vote of the Synod Council. Newly adopted continuing resolutions and amendments to existing continuing resolutions shall be reported to the secretary of this church.

CODIFICATION EXPLANATION

The provisions of the Constitution, the Bylaws and the Continuing Resolutions which pertain to the same matter have been placed together. This arrangement requires that the three types of material be identified by means other than physical separation. Provisions are identified by the following devices:

- A. All constitutional provisions are in normal, upright print.
- B. All bylaw material is printed in italic print.
- C. All continuing resolutions are printed in italic print.
- D. A numerical codification indicates general subject, constitutional provisions, bylaw provisions and continuing resolutions.

Major sections are designated as chapters. The chapters are numbered 1 through 18. The chapter designation becomes the first number in the codification sequence and is followed by a period. Thus provisions in "Chapter 8. Officers" are preceded by an "8."

Constitutional provisions are codified with two sets of numbers -- the chapter number and a two-digit number preceding the second period in the codification. General subjects are normally titled and designated by a number ending in zero. Thus a subdivision of Chapter 8 that contains provisions regarding a specific office is codified and titled "8.10. Bishop."

Bylaw provisions are codified with three sets of numbers -- the chapter number, the related constitutional provision number, and a two-digit number identifying the related bylaw.

Continuing resolutions are codified with four sets of numbers. The numbering is the same as for bylaws with the addition of a fourth set of two-digit numbers indicating year of passage preceded by a capital letter. Thus, "10.07.01.A89" indicates the continuing resolution relates to Chapter 10 (Synod Council), .07 (Composition), .01 (Cluster Representatives) and that the first ("A") continuing resolution related to this bylaw was adopted in 1989.

Those parts of the synod's constitution preceded by a (+) are provisions required by the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.
