

Poor People's Campaign Resolution for the May 10-12, 2019 Synod Assembly

Resolution #4 - Poor People's Campaign

Whereas, as members of the ELCA "We are freed in Christ to serve, love and care for our neighbor, and in this work we strive to ensure that all people have a livelihood that is sufficient to meet their basic needs and is sustainable in creation." <https://www.elca.org/Our-Work/Publicly-Engaged-Church/Social-Issues/Hunger-and-Poverty>, and

Whereas, as members of the ELCA, "we believe God is calling us into the world to serve together. Through our direct service, we aid immediate needs before us. Through our advocacy work, we impact systemic, long-lasting change." <https://www.elca.org/Our-Work/Publicly-Engaged-Church/Advocacy/Why-Advocacy>, and

Whereas, in 1967-68, Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King Jr and other leaders built a coalition with the intent to organize to end poverty. This coalition was called the Poor People's Campaign and organized across barriers of race to work "against dehumanization, discrimination and poverty wages in the richest country in the world." <https://www.poorpeoplescampaign.org/history/>, and

Whereas, in 2018, 50 years after Dr. King, the Poor People's Campaign: A National Call for Moral Revival came together and arose from years of organizing and listening across the US <https://www.poorpeoplescampaign.org/demands/>, and

Whereas, The Poor People's Campaign: A National Call for Moral Revival recognizes that the "centrality of systemic racism in maintaining economic oppression must be named, detailed and exposed empirically, morally and spiritually." <https://www.poorpeoplescampaign.org/fundamental-principles/>, and

Whereas, The Poor People's Campaign: A National Call for Moral Revival is "committed to lifting up and deepening the leadership of those most affected by systemic racism, poverty, the war economy, and ecological devastation and to building unity across lines of division." <https://www.poorpeoplescampaign.org/fundamental-principles/>, and

Whereas, the ELCA Social Statement on The Church in Society: A Lutheran Perspective states the ELCA "is committed to defend human dignity, to stand with poor and powerless people, to advocate justice, to work for peace, and to care for the earth in the processes and structures of contemporary society." http://download.elca.org/ELCA%20Resource%20Repository/Church\_SocietySS.pdf, and

Whereas, at least one hundred and thirty-two other national, regional, and local organizations have signed on as endorsing partners of The Poor People's Campaign: A National Call for Moral Revival , including ELCA full communion partners: the Presbyterian Church (USA), the United Church of Christ, the Episcopal Church, and the United Methodist Church; therefore,

Be it Resolved that, the ELCA in Oregon endorse the Poor People's Campaign and encourage its members to participate where appropriate in the organizing, advocacy, and actions of the campaign.

Submitted by

Rev. Leo Bancroft, The Flame, Portland

Jacey de la Torre, The Flame, Portland

Jilly de la Torre, The Flame, Portland

Kyle McQuillan, The Flame, Portland

Adam Page, The Flame, Portland

Rev. Laurie Larson Caesar, Spirit of Grace, Portland

Rev. Christine Core, Bethel, Portland

Rev. Michael Keys, Resurrection Lutheran, Portland

Rev. David Knapp, St. James Lutheran, Portland

Rev. Dr. Amanda Zentz-Alo, Central Lutheran, Portland